BIC/Honors/University Scholars Degree Planner BIC courses are taken in sequence and are only offered in their respective sequence semesters. Occasionally, BIC 4389 will be offered in the fall semester, as well as the spring.

Notes	Fall	Spring
UNSC majors are required to be in the Honors Program. You	BIC 1112: Examined Life I	BIC 1324:World Cultures II
	BIC 1314: World Cultures I	BIC 1323: World of Rhetoric I must complete 7 lower	BIC 1313: World of Rhetoric I level HON units and 3 upper level (with UNSC 3001, Exit Interview, counting as 2 of those upper level units). Other requirements include Colloquium and a	Summer I	Summer II
thesis.
BIO/CHE are substituted for BIC 2437 and 2447 only for students in pre-med or science concentrations.	Fall	Spring
	BIC 2334:World Cultures III	BIC 2344: World Cultures IV
Students must complete language requirements	BIC 2330: Social World I	BIC 2340: Social World II
according to a BA/BS degree. Other BA/BS	(BIC 2437: Natural World I) (see side bar)	(BIC 2447: Natural World II (see side bar)
requirements include 2	HON 3200 Colloquium I (or in spring)
lab sciences and a Math/Logical Reasoning course (see catalog). Students will also be required to	Summer I	Summer II
complete Creative Arts Experiences (see audit).
Students are not required to take the
GTX or REL classes.	Fall	Spring
BIC 4389 Capstone takes the place of	UNSC 3001 Exit Interview	BIC 3358: Biblical Heritage & Ethics (any University Scholars		term; may be offered in summer)
Capstone.	HON 3100: Independent Reading	HON 3101 Independent Readings
Optional group honors contract in BIC classes.
Students must take two HON units per semester. See BIC/HON planner.	Summer I	Summer II
Honors Colloquium,	Summern
Readings, Thesis hours
may be adjusted from the schedule indicated.
HON 3200 may be taken either fall or	Fall	Spring
spring in the second	HON 4V87 Honors Thesis	Spring
year.	HON 4V87 HOHOIS THESIS	BIC 4389: Capstone (see side bar) any term HON 4V87 Honors Thesis
Schedule may be modified for study abroad needs. See your BIC and Honors advisor.
A specific study abroad option with BIC classes	Summer I	Summer II
is offered in Greece.		